PRESS RELEASE

Case # 17-4013

Prepared By: Sergeant C. Goranitis, PIO, 305-466-8989

Date/Time of Occurrence: August 4, 2017

Address of Occurrence: Aventura Commons Shopping Plaza 21265 Biscayne Boulevard

Case Summary:

During the last week, the Aventura Police Department received multiple complaints from individuals that advised us that an unknown subject was placing disturbing notes on female's vehicles. The same subject was observed following a female around the Aventura Commons Shopping Plaza.

Undercover units located the individual placing additional explicit notes on women's vehicles on Friday August 4, 2017. The male was identified as Cavakia Therlonge.

Therlonge was arrested by the Aventura Police Department and charged accordingly.

It was determined that Therlonge has been trespassed from other locations throughout Dade County in the past for similar actions including the Aventura Mall and Florida International University.

Therlonge pled guilty and was convicted, received credit time served a fine and court costs.

Photographs of Therlonge have been attached to this release.
